ENGLISH 9: SUMMER READING PROJECT 2017

Mrs. Read
High School English

Book genre:	Classic novel from Summer Reading List
Project:	Diorama
Project grade value:	Bonus 100% test grade for the Quarter 1 Literature Test category
Assignment Objective:	To give students the opportunity to earn a test grade using an alternative method to standardized tests; to let students use their creativity to enhance their learning; to have FUN while reading a book!

Project assigned: Summer Break 2017

PROJECT DUE DATE: Monday, August 14, 2017 (the first day of school)

Project Requirements:

- 1) Students must choose a book that they have not previously read from the 2017 Summer Reading List. No credit will be given if a student turns in a project for a book not on the list or for a previously read book.
- 2) Using a regular-sized shoebox, students must create a Diorama reflective of the story's theme/central setting/main characters. The lid of the shoebox does not have to be included in the project unless it is decorated as part of the project. One side of the shoebox may be removed for ease of decorating. The entire shoebox must be decorated (no logos, etc., showing).
- 3) Students must include their name, grade, book title, and author's name on one or more of the sides of the Diorama. All information must be typed; students may use any font style/ink colors for their typed information; font size should be 12-point minimum; font styles/colors must be readable. No handwriting! (Optional: Students may use stickers for their "typed" information.)
- 4) Students will be graded on overall neatness and creativity, completion of project requirements, and grade-level appropriateness of their work.
